I have been informed about the Wellbeing Award for Schools.

Improvements

School already offers excellent support - I can only suggest they keep it up. The staff are all very helpful and always ready to help.

Evidence

I heard at a parents wellbeing meeting and on school website.

website letter

I attended a parents meeting also saw it in information point in the playground.

Received a letter informing me.

I received a letter from school.

letter, website.

Letter and at meeting we talked about it. It is good for this school because they should be recognised for all they do.

Letter and notice board

All parents were informed. I think it is good that they are pursuing the award as they are a good school.

We all received a letter explaining.

website notice letter

The school sent a letter to inform parents.

website and i received a letter

I know because i received a letter and my child told me as they had a 'feelings' assembly.

i receive letters from school. school sent a letter letter sent to me last few weeks i had a letter.

I have a good understanding of the importance of emotional wellbeing and mental health on my child's performance in school.

Average score 4.46

Evidence

After meeting

Children feel settled and happy then they work at their best.

Teacher give information and tell me.

I work for the NHS and have an elder child.

I read a leaflet from school and attend weekly meetings where it is included.

I know some and could learn more.

i now understand more.

I know my child and school 'knows' all the children very well. They know if something with the child is not quite right.

I understand my contribution in promoting emotional wellbeing and mental health within the school.

Average score 4.61

Evidence

Meeting and leaflet school

and family together

Families and staff alongside children's and adult services must work together.

I always try to do so in my capacity.

Parents are made aware in weekly meetings about how to help children at home with praise and encouragement and rewarding resilience.

More so now.

Mrs Hinchliffe tells me how important it is that i promote it with my family, we now go walk at weekend and watch out for each other.

I share my thoughts and look out for others. I feel more confident now.

All parents and staff together

Everyone involved with the school needs to support and look out for each other when it comes to emotional wellbeing and mental health.

Average score 4.79

Evidence

we work in partnership and as a family

All professionals at this school are knowledgeable around this area and work alongside families when the need arises.

Teachers are very good and understand and always help when I have a concern.

Very important.

They already do. keep it up.

It is important.

A joint activity and very important, no shame to be felt by friends and parents caring and asking.

Community duty and everyone at school promotes this. everybody

The school really cares about the emotional wellbeing and mental health of everyone involved with the school.

Average score 4.86

Improvements

Keep it up is all I can say. I have always had a positive experience whenever I have raised a concern.

m

Evidence

They are open to all concerns and worries. They listen.

They show they care.

I see it.

My child talked about assembly - how they feel, not once but few times.

I strongly agree with this.

Everyone is very good and understand - always help. The whole ethos is fantastic amongst a listening staff. I am always updated which is reassuring.

Very caring school - the whole child, also parents and family health.

My children are well taken care of emotionally.

caring school

Very much.

Everyone tries hard, i see it and other parents believe it.

A really caring school. They are not afraid to have difficult conversations. Things are brought to the table and sorted out so everyone is happier and children are learning. Healthy families healthy heads and brains.

all the time

They good at this.

This school is fantastic around this subject.

It is clear that emotional wellbeing is valued and important across the school.

Average score 4.61

Evidence

All staff work closely together, I have seen this. If I ask questions or say a concern they find the person to help.

Whenever I have visited school the environment is very harmonious and peaceful.

Very clear - first subject talked about. My child is settled, friendships, feel they part of school and he is important to everyone - healthy mind.

My child is happy and joyful each day and parents can talk at school and ask for help and support.

Every day they value, somebody each day needs them before learning. Parents get help too.

The school actively encourages parents to be open about how they and their children are feeling.

Average score 4.61

Improvements

School could open in holiday time? but don't know if possible. I feel happy and safe there for my family.

Evidence

I know I can ask or talk to staff at school. I can say it how it is. They talk about all children and being a parent and an adult at meetings and at courses.

Parents and families can go to school with any issue or worry.

Teachers ask how we are and our children are at home. We completed a questionnaire.

School always make parents aware that they are happy to help if anyone needs support.

Conversations are easy to have. They always listen and are interested.

Everyone at school always ask parents and carers to be open about their feelings.

If my child is upset or worried i go to talk at school and things are sorted.

They say come school, door is open, come and tell us then we help you to help your child and we help them too.

If needed, I would feel comfortable talking about my own emotional wellbeing and mental health with the school.

Average score 4.54

Evidence

I am comfortable.

Trust

I have already spoken.

School staff always listen and I feel confident I can speak to anyone. They also have a school nurse 'drop in' service.

of course - healthy parent/healthy child

If I needed i think i would feel able.

Everyone is approachable and friendly.

I feel able to talk to staff about my wellbeing confidentially.

i feel ok just now don't know until i feel troubled. i let you know.

i think maybe i would

They gave me lots of time to say how i feel and help me. Mrs Hinchliffe listen and hold my hand or i not talk. She get help for me and Mrs Wilson got me and made me strong.

If needed, I would feel comfortable talking about my child's emotional wellbeing and mental health with the school.
